PANGEA DAY – Starting at 2:00 PM (Bloomington time) on Sat. May 10, locations in Cairo, Kigali, London, Los Angeles, Mumbai, and Rio de Janeiro will be linked for a live program of powerful films, live music, and visionary speakers. The entire program will be broadcast in seven languages, to millions of people worldwide through the internet, television, and mobile phones. The 24 short films to be featured have been selected from an international competition that generated more than 2,500 submissions from over one hundred countries. The films were chosen based on their ability to inspire, transform, and allow us see the world through another person's eyes. Sign up to depart at 1:30 PM to Woodburn Hall, ground floor, and share the excitement of a world united in one single wish, to achieve peace and understanding. This is a 4-hr. event but our driver will return at 4:00 for those who wish to return early.

LINCOLN MUSEUM will close to the public on June 30. Take advantage of the opportunity on May 20 to visit the largest collection of Lincoln material in the US.

NEW FIRST CLASS POSTAL RATES increase to .42 cents is effective May 12. If you have the “forever” stamp, it is still usable even if you only paid .41 cents.

BUTTERFLY GARDEN time is here again. If you would like to contribute to the garden, please leave your gifts in Anne Jones's box at 1043 Sassafras.

BLOOMINGTON EARLY MUSIC FESTIVAL (BLEMF) tickets are on sale at Sunrise Box Office on Kirkwood or www.bloomingtonarts.info. We provide transportation to some venues.

HALL OF FAME VETERANS DISPLAY will be presented in the Administrative Hall over the Memorial Day weekend. If you were in the military and would like to have your own board from your service years, board samples and poster board is available at the credenza. Boards must be completed by Wednesday, May 21 and given to Kathy W.

CALLING NEW VETERAN RESIDENTS (have moved in since May 07): We need your rank, branch, and years of service, for upcoming Veterans ad honoring your military service. Leave info at Marketing office or 330-4375 ext. 304 by May 15.

US FLAGS will be flown from June 14 (Flag Day) through July 4. Each year Meadowood residents have participated by displaying a flag at each resident unit as well. If you need a flag contact Hospitality by May 20 to order a flag and bracket installed for $21.50, charged back. These flags are nice with wooden poles and finial.

CONGRATULATIONS to all of our recent and upcoming grads! A special board is on display outside the Founder's Room honoring all of our staff, including Susan Bookout, MBA, and Jean Keith, Master of Gerontology. Please take a look.

SAMPLE GATES PRINT on display was presented to Meadowood by IU Foundation President Curt Simic and his wife Judy, at our recent retirement reception. This gift will hang in the Founder's Room, along with other prints which were given by the IU Foundation. A gift from Meadowood was given to the "Onward Campaign" (an IUF scholarship), in Curt Simic's honor. Meadowood also presented "waitlist status" to the Simics for their next retirement move.
